

The Medina Sentinel

Entered at the Postoffice in Medina, Ohio, as second-class matter, October 3, 1888.

M. K. LONG ..... Publisher
R. M. LONG ..... General Manager
GEO. M. DENTON ..... Editor

Advertising rates made known on application. All legitimate advertising accepted from reliable business firms.

Political advertising, 50c an inch, each insertion.

Add all communications to the Medina Sentinel, Medina, Ohio.

All subscriptions are payable in advance.

One Year ..... $1.50
Six Months ..... .75
Single Copy ..... .05

Largest County Circulation of Any Newspaper.

Remson Corners

Mrs. Ervin Wiley and son, Park Wiley and wife, all of Cleveland, visited Mr. and Mrs. Vernal Salisbury Saturday. Mrs. Ervin Wiley spent the afternoon with her nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gingery and they all went to Sharon Saturday night to spend the week-end with Mrs. Wiley's sister, Mrs. Gingery.

Lawrence Dean sold his farm to Akron parties by the name of Hal-blob, who took possession last week and Mr. Dean has purchased the Blackie farm on the Center road and has just recently moved into his new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Case spent Sunday in Richfield with Mrs. Case's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Bigelow, in honor of Mrs. Bigelow's birthday anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bigelow were there also.

Russel Holshue of Copley and Miss Mabel Kane, Stanley Cunningham of Sharon and Miss Helen Hanson, also Russel Holshue's father and mother, visited Mrs. Holshue's sister in Lorain on Sunday.

V. F. Rickert and wife, visited Mrs. Rickert's brother, B. W. Searles and family in Royalton, Sunday. Mr. Searles' daughter had just recently returned from the hospital after an operation and they found her getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. John Andrew spent last Thursday in Bath with Mr. and Mrs. Dana Miller.

Last Thursday Mr. and Mrs. V. F. Rickert entertained Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Ganyard, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. James Ganyard, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Metzger, all of Akron, Mr. and Mrs. Metzger returned from an auto trip about a week ago, a distance of 1600 miles, they having went to California and north to Seattle, Wash. They report a wonderful trip and were gone 100 days, the entire trip made by auto.

Mrs. Stella Case spent Friday and Saturday in Akron with her daughter Mrs. Clyde Keitt and husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Simmons of Medina visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mickel Friday.

There was a double birthday anniversary celebration at the home of Siegel Brown last Sunday, in honor of Mrs. Etta Wilcox and her brother Siegel, whose birthdays come nearly on the same day of the year. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Worthy of Medina, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Stoddard, O. C. Wilcox and wife, J. R. Wilcox and family.

Mrs. Bert Nichols and sister Anna visited friends in Cleveland from Friday until Monday. Little Ethel Nichols stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Will Ganyard during her mother's absence.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Webster Bolles, Wednesday afternoon of this week. There was installation of officers and a miscellaneous program.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Graham and granddaughter of Akron were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rockwood over the week-end, and visited Fred Sylvester and family Sunday.

Mrs. Hilbert's sister and daughter of Cleveland, recently moved out here, in with Mr. and Mrs. Hilbert and expect to stay with them all winter.

Mrs. Seymour Coddling has just lately had another sick spell, but is a little better at this writing.

There was a large crowd out to the Farm Bureau and Mothers' club meeting last Friday night. Much praise was given the school for their wonderful display in their school fair, it showing great interest on both pupil and teacher. The musical numbers were fine and the Juniors served the refreshments—oysters.

Miss Eva Swigart, who was helping in the exchange, was called to her home in Akron, owing to her mother's ill health, and Miss Cora Root of Brunswick is expected to be here the last of the week to assist Mr. and Mrs. Anderson in their work.

A friend of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Miss Rugg of Granville spent last week with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Moon entertained the following last Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Mell Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fowler and two children of Wooster, also Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bolles and Lelia and Harve Cutter.

Miss Myra Kinton will entertain the Anti-Can'ts Saturday night and they have also invited the Gleaners Class.

Don't forget the lecture course on Friday night at the school house. Some of the men of the church will meet Thursday and work on the basement of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Willey went to the Old Ladies' Home in Akron last Saturday to see Mrs. Hagenbaugh, who has been quite sick. They found her better, but not able to come home with them, as they had planned.

Mrs. John Andrew and son, Floyd Smith and family, spent last Saturday in Medina and Cleveland.

O. G. Perrin has moved his family from East Granger to Weymouth.

Will Dake, who has bought property in Texas, has returned from there and expects to go again and build soon.

Aunt Henrietta Dague entertained Mr. Prentice Florence Johnson, Mr. Bruce and cousin, all of Cleveland last Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. Duane Baird Thursday, Nov. 17. This will be an all-day meeting with a dinner furnished by six ladies. There is quilting to be done and two comforts to tie, so be sure and bring thimbles.

Boneta

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Freidt entertained the people of Boneta at a party Saturday evening, Nov. 5. There were about 100 people there and everybody had a very nice time.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Walker and two sons of Rittman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dean and family.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Orton and daughter, Ruth, spent Sunday in Wadsworth. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Meier of Boneta visited friends in Wayne county from Wednesday until Friday. Mr. Stratton stayed with the children at night while the parents were gone.

Spencer

Mrs. Ralph Bryant was taken to Lakeside hospital last Saturday morning where she was operated on for appendicitis.

A special teachers' meeting at Medina Saturday was attended by our high school teachers who also attended the Oberlin-Wooster football game at Oberlin Saturday afternoon. Dr. and Mrs. Buckley, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Buckley, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Walter O'Brien also attended the game.

The M. E. Missionary society held their annual dinner and barrel packing at the town hall Friday afternoon. They sent two barrels of canned fruit and vegetables to the Deaconess' Home in Cleveland, valued at $54.39, tied off four comforters and the amount taken in for dinners was $22. Pretty good day's work we'll say.

Mrs. W. G. Reece is visiting her parents at Unionolis. She received word last week of the burning of their home.

The Philathea class of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. Maud Firestone Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Brown visited their son Frank in Delaware over the week-end.

The Maccabees had a quilting bee at the home of Mrs. Benny Inman and were treated to a chicken dinner given at the home of Mrs. Ellen Walters by the dinner committee.

A Cleveland truck loaded with cheese from our Spencer factory struck the northwest corner of the bridge at foot of the hill just north of the old Rudd farm and blocked the highway for a few hours one night this week. There have been numerous protests against this bridge and it looks to us as tho something should be done to make it a little more safe.

The friends of Miss Mabel Mantz gave her a pleasant surprise on her birthday last Friday night.

Mr. Evans, cashier of the State Bank, Mr. Daugherty, clerk at the State Bank and Mr. Waters, high school teacher, are keeping bachelor's hall in Art Dague's house.

Dr. and Mrs. Foreward of Cleveland visited Dr. and Mrs. Buckley over the week-end.

We hear that Mr. and Mrs. Farquarson of River Corners will take charge of the Spencer hotel while Mrs. Garris and son return to Texas for the winter.

Don't forget the Maccabees bazaar on Nov. 18.

Ladies' day at the M. E. church was a grand success. There were ninety nine ladies present. The entire congregation numbers 174 and over $13.00 was taken in collections. This Sunday is Gentlemen's day. Let's see what they can do.

Mrs. Wilmer Miller and small son Ralph of Iberia, visited Mrs. John Rowe over the week-end. Her Spencer friends will remember her as Miss Belle Forbes.

Mr. Hiram Snyder and family visited friends and relatives in Jeromesville Sunday.

Miss Francis Beemer of Akron visited her sisters, the Misses Daisy and Faye Beemer and Mrs. L. C. Curtiss over the week-end.

Mrs. Hazel Cunningham of New London visited her aunts, Mrs. Wm. Ream and Mrs. Lou Rush one day last week.

Friends of Clayton Stuart are sorry to hear that he is not so well as usual.

Mr. Web Haines is moving into the house owned by Clyde Howe on Billman avenue.

Miss Clara Woods spent the week-end visiting at the home of Henry Kilmer at Pawnee.

How do you like thunder storms in November?

Mrs. Jane Gilmore of Lisbon is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Walter O'Brien.

Mrs. Harrington of Detroit is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Stroup.

Mrs. Henry Walters visited her son Grover and family, in Norwalk, last week.

The next number on the lecture course will be given Saturday night. Speaker, Mr. Fitzpatrick.

Mrs. Will Auble visited her son, Clyde and family in Canton last week.

Mrs. Ray Aldrich received the sad news of the death of Mr. E. L. Powers of Marion, Ala., who died of heart trouble while playing tennis. Mr. Bowers was a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. George Betz. He leaves a wife and daughter, Margaret.

Wadsworth

Funeral services for Ruth Gladys Wortman, 2, were held at the home, Friday afternoon.

The wedding of Hallie Gladys Swain of River Styx and George Durling of Wadsworth will occur at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Swain, Saturday.

O. E. S. elected the following officers at their last meeting: W. M., Isa Giers; W. P., Guy O'Brien; A. M., Lillian Irey; sec., Cora Lee; treasurer, Edith Cox; conductress, Maud Byers; associate conductress, Cora Cox; trustee, Ida Nolf.

Congressman C. L. Knight of Akron will address a men's meeting at Lutheran church, Thursday evening. He will speak on "Disarmament of Nations." The band and a men's chorus will furnish music.

A union meeting of the churches occurred at Reformed church Sunday evening. Rev. C. B. Etter spoke on the "Limitation of Armaments."

Miss Agnes Sprunger, returned missionary from Belgium Congo, Africa, spoke at Mennonite church last Sunday morning.

The Red Cross membership drive will be in charge of American Legion Post No. 170.

Ten local telephone girls surprised their chief operator Tuesday evening. A three-course luncheon was served, games and a social time were enjoyed. Past Noble Grands of Rebekah order were entertained by Mrs. C. J. Irey, Friday afternoon. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Fred Falk and Mrs. C. C. Way.

Literature and Art club meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Carl Krieger. Program in charge of literature department. Also a playlet by the music department.

A non-partisan political meeting was held at opera house, Friday evening. Only a few candidates were present to take part in the discussion.

Foot Comfort

DREW'S ARCH REST
ANY SHAPE OR STYLE

Women wearing our popular "Arch Rest" shoes know what real foot comfort is.

"I am on my feet from morning 'till night" is a statement truthfully made by many women "Arch Rest" shoes are so constructed as to fit well and at the same time give the foot perfect freedom and comfort.

Exclusive agency.

SPECIALS

Boys' good wearing school shoes—lace or button at $2.00 a pair.

A lot of good house shoes for women at $1 a pair.

One lot of very handsome black kid lace shoes, Cuban heels, good high tops, graceful fitters, and of choice black kid leather, reduced from $8.50 to $5.00 a pair.

SHINE SETS

Good wool polisher (large size) good bristle dauber and box of polish—complete outfit, while they last at 35c.

They Shop Around

It's a good idea.

Particularly when the fellow wants a real smart shoe—one that possesses some distinction in style and fit.

Same old story—they select one of our seven wonderful styles in Florsheims—the shoe for "the man who cares."

We have the exclusive agency for the Florsheim shoes and oxfords.

L. F. Garver &amp; Son, Corner Shoe Store

CHURCHES

Methodist Church
Sunday, Nov. 13—10, Morning service, sermon by pastor, subject, "The Good News of the Kingdom;" 11:15 a. m. S. S., M. E. Schlabach, supt.; 5 p. m. Junior League, Miss Pauline Frazier, supt.; 6 p. m. Epworth League, Miss Eloda Pelton, leader; subject, "Bible Examples of Personal Evangelism;" 7, evening service, sermon by pastor, subject, "A Voice from the Skies;" 7, Thursday evening, devotional service; 7:15, Friday evening, choir rehearsal. A welcome for everybody. Rev. Wallace H. Bryenton, pastor.

Congregational Church
Sunday, Nov. 13—Morning worship at 10, "Stressing the Father and Son Idea," this service will be planned with appropriate sermon and program; a special invitation to fathers and sons; 11:15 a. m., Sunday school; 6 p. m. Christian Endeavor meeting; 7, orchestra night, special musical service by the Sunday school orchestra; 7 p. m., midweek devotional service. To all services a welcome. Rev. Wm. J. Drew, minister.

Baptist Church
Sunday, Nov. 13—10, Morning service, sermon, "The Fruits of the Spirit;" 11:15, Bible school; 6 p. m. Junior and Senior B. Y. P. U.; 7, evening preaching service, subject, "The Atheistic Fool;" 7 p. m. Tuesday, Union Bible Study Class; 7, Thursday, prayer and praise; 7:30, choir rehearsal. We welcome you. Rev. A. Irwin, pastor.

Church of Christ
Sunday, Nov. 13—Morning service, 10; subject, "Lives that Live;" Bible school, 11; Junior, 5 p. m.; C. E., 6 p. m.; evening service, 7 p. m.; subject, "Christ in the Synagogue;" prayer meeting, Thursday, 7 p. m.; choir rehearsal, Thursday, 8 p. m. Everybody welcome. Rev. W. R. Moffet, pastor.

KNIGHT AT GRANGER
Granger Township Farm Bureau met in conjunction with the Mothers' Club Friday night, Nov. 4. Standing room only was in evidence.

The members of the high school put on an agricultural fair that would have done credit to any county fair. The decorations were not only tasteful, but the displays were well arranged and of good quality.

The evening's entertainment consisted of a series of musical selections by the different classes under direction of the County Music Instructor, Mr. Burns.

Later in the evening, Hon. C. L. Knight of Akron gave an address touching on school legislation and taxation in general.

The evening closed with a cafeteria lunch served by the Junior class.

Wanted---Poultry

We pay highest prices for Poultry of all kinds, and you can deliver them any day of the week. Located near B. & O. depot.

B. W. TEBBIT

Phone 1062

Medina, Ohio

MEMORIALS

Do you intend erecting a monument or marker for Decoration Day? If so we invite you to look over the beautiful designs we have ready to letter in our show room.

THE MEDINA GRANITE & MARBLE CO. SOUTH COURT ST. MEDINA, OHIO